PRESS OF
THE PEABODY UNION
1897

BY-LAWS
OF THE
Peabody Board of Trade.

---

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This association shall be known as the Peabody Board of Trade.

ARTICLE II.

OBJECT.

The object of the organization hereinbefore named, is to promote the material interests and general welfare of the Town of Peabody; to cultivate a cordial acquaintance and friendly feeling among its citizens; to encourage and promote the establishment of new enterprises in town, and to extend a helping hand to all industries now in our midst; its further purpose is to secure united action in all matters that pertain to the improvement and prosperity of our town.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERS, ELIGIBLE.

Section 1. Any resident of Peabody, or person doing business therein, shall be eligible to membership. Applicants for membership may be proposed by any member of the Board of Trade to the Committee on New Members, for their approval.

ADMISSION FEE.

Section 2. The admission fee shall be one dollar ($1.00).

ANNUAL DUES AND PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO PAY SAME.

Section 3. Each member shall pay to the Secretary an annual assessment of two dollars, payable semi-annually — at the annual meeting in February and in August. All persons joining between dates named — semi-annual payments — shall pay a prorata of said dues. Any member failing to pay his assessment within three months after the same is due shall be notified by the Secretary, and failure to pay the same within thirty days thereafter shall be considered as a withdrawal from the Board, and the name of said member shall be stricken from the list of members.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS; ELECTING SAME; VACANCIES.

The Officers of this Board shall consist of a President, three Vice-Presidents, fifteen Directors, Secretary and Treasurer. And said officers shall constitute the Executive Committee. These officers shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting and shall hold office for one year or until others are elected in their stead.

They shall fill all vacancies occurring in their numbers during the year.

ARTICLE V.

OFFICERS, DUTIES OF.

Section 1.—President. It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Board and Executive Committee.

He shall appoint all committees unless otherwise ordered.

In the absence of the President, the Vice-Presidents in the order of their seniority shall preside; and in the absence of the President and Vice-Presidents a Chairman pro tem. shall be chosen.

Section 2.—Secretary. The Secretary shall keep a correct record of the Board and of the Executive Committee, and shall notify the members of the meetings of the Board and Executive Committee. He shall collect all dues and assessments and shall pay the same to the Treasurer as often as once a month, and shall report to the Board monthly the moneys so received and paid by him. He shall receive such compensation as the Executive Committee may determine.

Section 3.—Treasurer. The Treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to the Board, keeping a just and correct account of the same, and shall pay all bills after their approval by the Finance Committee. He shall make quarterly reports of the financial condition of the Board.

He shall give a bond for the faithful performance of his business, if required by the Executive Committee.

The books of the Treasurer shall be open at all times to the inspection of the Executive Committee or any member thereof.

Section 4. — Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall have the general direction of all matters pertaining to the management of the Association and shall exercise all the powers and authority not specially delegated to other officers by these By-Laws. Five members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VI.

Section 1. — Sub-Committees. As soon as practicable after the annual meeting, the Executive Committee shall elect Sub-Committees as follows: a Committee of three on Finance; a Committee of three on Railroad and Transportation; a Committee of three on Insurance; a Committee of five on New Enterprises, and a Committee of five on New Members.

Section 2. — Duties of Sub-Committees. These Committees shall hold their offices for one year, and shall have the care and consideration of such matters coming within their respective scopes as may be referred to them. All Sub-Committees shall report to the Executive Committee at least two weeks before the annual meeting, and at such other times as may be required.

One member of the Executive Committee shall be appointed a member of each Sub-Committee, and shall be Chairman thereof, and the proceedings shall be recorded by a Secretary chosen by its members.

Section 3.—Duties of Finance Committee. The Finance Committee shall examine and certify to the correctness of all claims against the Board, previous to their payment by the Treasurer. They shall audit the accounts of the Treasurer and Secretary and report thereon at the annual meeting, and at such other times as may be directed by vote of the Executive Committee.

Section 4.—Report of Executive Committee. At the annual meeting the Executive Committee shall submit a report of its proceedings for the year, and shall report at each regular meeting upon such matters as have been referred to it, or of any other business that may be of interest to the Board.

ARTICLE VII.

MEETINGS.

Section 1.—Regular Meetings. The regular meetings of the Board shall be held on the first Thursday of the month, and the regular meeting in February shall be the annual meeting.

Section 2.—Special Meetings. Special Meetings may be called by order of the President at any time, and shall be called by the Secretary when requested to do so by the Executive Committee, or on written application of five or more members of the Board.

Section 3. Ten members present at any regularly notified meeting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VIII.

AMENDING BY-LAWS.

These By-Laws may be amended by vote of two-thirds of the members present at any regular or special meeting of the Board, written notice of such proposed amendment having been read at a preceding regular meeting and the members duly notified thereof.
